Thomas Cassidy Dies In Jackson

WAS WELL KNOWN OWNER OF SHOPPENAGONS INN

Family Summoned But Arrived Too Late

At about 6:00 o'clock this Thursday morning news was received that Thomas Cassidy, well known proprietor of Shoppenagons Inn, had passed away at Mercy hospital, Jackson, Mich.

At about 4:00 o'clock a. m., a message was received saying that Mr. Cassidy's condition was low and for the family to come at once. Mrs. Cassidy and son Joe left by auto at 6:00 a. m. but were unable to reach there before Mr. Cassidy passed away.

For several years he had been suffering from hernia and he went to Mercy hospital at Jackson, Mich., for treatment and to be fitted with a new truss. While there he submitted to an operation on December 16th and seemed to be getting along very nicely. Mrs. Cassidy and daughters Mrs. Victor Thelen of Grand Rapids, and Sister Mary Panratia of Saginaw visited him over Christmas. Since returning home Mrs. Cassidy said that Tom was getting along nicely and intended to be home next Saturday. Evidently a sudden turn in his condition proved fatal.

The news of Mr. Cassidy's death was a very severe shock to Grayling people, especially among the local business men. The news spread rapidly and everywhere there is the sentiment of sincere sorrow and sympathy for the family.

The limited time before going to press precludes an extensive resume of Mr. Cassidy's interesting career. This we hope to be able to present in our next edition. He was one of our most progressive business men and was always identified with any community movement for the good of Grayling. He was loyal to Grayling's interests and gave generously toward its promotion. He was one of those who could always be counted upon to do his part. And among his personal friends he was a "prince of a fellow" and was usually included whenever there was anything doing. Tom Cassidy is going to be missed here in many ways, and we feel that Grayling has lost one of its most worthy citizens. He was a member of our Village Council and of the Knights of Columbus.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made. The remains will be brought to Grayling and are expected to arrive this evening.

Honorable Council of the Village of Grayling: Gentlemen:

It is with deep and sincere regret that I must inform your honorable body of the death of our brother Councilman and distinguished public spirited citizen whose names have been identified with the making of Grayling. I refer to Thomas Cassidy, whose passing this Thursday morning leaves a place in the life of our city which cannot be filled. It is not for me to recall in detail the events in the life of this fine citizen. They are known to all who are acquainted with the development of this community. I therefore, recommend that your honorable body, by appropriate resolution take such action as will in some measure set forth the community debt of gratitude to an outstanding civic leader and a generous lover of his city, state and country.

Signed, Mayor C. G. Clippert.

The Village Council acknowledges the untimely death of their brother Councilman and to commemorate his glowing memory, do hereby pass the following resolution:

Be it resolved that the Village Council of Grayling, Michigan extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathies. That we mourn with them the loss of so noble a husband, father, and brother. That we bid them find comfort in the memories that are theirs and that we assure them that we, too, shall ever treasure and revere the name, life and deeds of our departed fellow Councilman, Thomas Cassidy. Whereas, he was an outstanding citizen retaining the respects of men for his leadership and their affections for his integrity.

Signed, C. G. Clippert, Mayor. E. L. Sparkes, Village Clerk.

A & P Co. Loses Case Against Village

APPEAL WAS MADE TO SUPREME COURT

Would Force Village To Grant Beer Licenses

The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. lost its appeal case in the State Supreme court against Village President C. J. McNamara, and others of the Village council when the Supreme court, in session last Friday, denied its application.

This case first came up in the Circuit court of Crawford county, charging that the then village president, C. J. McNamara and members of the council were in default in not approving the application of the A. & P. Co. for a license to sell beer.

Attorneys Cook & Cook of Saginaw represented the defendants in the case (Village council), and A. & P. Co. attorneys the plaintiffs. Judge Guy E. Smith handed down a verdict in favor of the defendants and against the A. & P. Co. The latter had carried the case up to the State Supreme court, where it had its final hearing December 29th and rendered a decision in favor of the council members.

Following is a copy of the Supreme Court order:

At a session of the Supreme Court of the State of Michigan, held at the Supreme Court room, in the Capital, in the City of Lansing, on the twenty-ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

Present the Honorable John S. McDonald, Chief Justice. Thomas A. E. Weadock, William W. Potter, Nelson Sharpe, Walter H. North, Louis H. Fead, Howard Wiest, Henry M. Butzel, Associate Justices.

The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, Plaintiff and Appellant, vs. 37672½ Charles J. McNamara, et al., Defendants.

In this cause an application is filed by plaintiff for leave to appeal from an order of the Circuit Court for the County of Crawford, and a brief in opposition thereto having been filed by defendants, and due consideration thereof having been had by the Court. It is ordered that the application be and the same is hereby denied, as recent legislation has rendered question for review moot. State of Michigan—ss.

I, Jay Mertz, Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of Michigan, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of an order entered in said court in said cause; that I have compared the same with the original, and that it is a true transcript therefrom, and the whole of said original order.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Supreme Court at Lansing, this 30th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three. Jay Mertz, Clerk.

Wm. Gray In Jail For Arson

PLEADS GUILTY TO OFFENSE COMMITTED IN 1931

Sheriff Frank Bennett put another feather in his hat this week when he brot to the bar of justice William Gray, age 37, charged with setting fire to his father's property with the idea of cashing in on the insurance. His father is Frank Gray and for many years was a resident of Grayling but now resides in Gaylord.

The fire occurred July 29th, 1931 and was a total loss, and the father collected from the insurance Company the sum of $1,000.00.

The family had moved out and taken up a residence in Gaylord. It is reported that effort was made to sell or rent the Grayling home but without success and the house stood vacant for some time. There was a $200.00 mortgage on the new home in Gaylord and money was not readily available. Then it was that the son, according to his confession made to State Fire Marshal McKenna, came to Grayling and set fire to the old home and, up to this time, successfully evaded detection.

He drove his car, according to his story, to Grayling and parked it near the railroad. He next went to the home and left a lighted candle in a can of gasoline so that when it burned down to a certain point it would ignite the gasoline and there would be an explosion and quite insure a successful conflagration.

It worked successfully and now he is in jail awaiting circuit court where he says he will plead guilty.

Sheriff Bennett remembered the time when the fire occurred and quietly began an investigation, picking up a little evidence here and there until finally the finger of accusation pointed to young Gray. The latter family residing in Gaylord, Bennett confided his information with sheriff Deadman of Gaylord who from that time assisted him in his efforts until finally last New Year morning our sheriff telegraphed the Gaylord sheriff to arrest William Gray and saying that a warrant charging him with the crime of arson awaited him here.

At that time State Fire Marshal

30 Days In Jail For Stealing Gas

Walter Madzelowski, of Hamtramck, a member of OCC Camp No. 672, was arrested last week by Sheriff Frank Bennett, charging him with stealing radiator caps, blankets and gasoline from autos. Madzelowski plead guilty to the charge and is now serving 30 days in jail.

These offenses were committed last summer and early in the fall and Sheriff Bennett has been working on the case ever since. It goes to show that Frank eventually gets his man and it isn't going to pay anyone around here to trespass upon others property rights nor commit criminal offenses.

There are a few other fellows around town who are going to "get theirs" too. Just a little more evidence is all that is needed to bring the offenders into court.

Suspicion points to parties for offenses which they no doubt believe are past apprehension, but some day they're going to be surprised. Our citizens and courts should get behind Sheriff Bennett in his effort to curtail crime.

Very Delightful Charity Party

In spite of zero weather and icy streets and roads a very good sized crowd attended the Charity Ball given for the benefit of Mercy Hospital Friday evening at the school gymnasium.

The decorating committee under the supervision of Mrs. Ernest Hoesli arranged green boughs and pastel shade streamers so that the gym presented a very festive air for the occasion. The streamers were hung from wires which had been stretched to form a wheel, from the hub of which long pink ribbon-like loops hung halfway to the floor. Christmas trees lighted with bright colored bulbs enclosed the dance floor making a cozy, warm appearance. The rail of the balcony had been hidden by green boughs which are so appropriate at the holiday season. This idea was also carried out in the stage setting which had been arranged for the orchestra.

Judd's Varsity Vagabonds of Cheboygan furnished excellent music for which much appreciation was expressed during the evening. Two members of the band gave some specialties in tap dancing during the evening, which were enjoyed by the crowd.

There was just enough informality to give the party a gay and merry atmosphere so essential to the spirit of an occasion of this sort, when everyone is out to celebrate the holiday season.

The lunch, under the direction of the Nurses Alumnae Assn., was served on small tables arranged around the balcony of the gym.

Committees responsible for the very pleasant affair were: General chairman, Mrs. C. G. Clippert. Decorations: Mrs. Ernest Hoesli, Mrs. S. Flowers, Mrs. Roy Milnes, Mrs. C. J. McNamara, Mrs. Harold McNeven, Mrs. J. C. Green. Tickets and Advertising: Miss Margaret Bauman, Miss Irene McKay, Mrs. Scott Stammer, Mrs. Geo. Olson, Mrs. Emil Niederer, Mrs. Adolph Peterson. Music: Mrs. Geo. Olson.

Some $40 was netted from the affair which will be turned over to Mercy Hospital.

The committee wish to thank all who contributed to the success of the party.

McKenna and U. S. Fire Marshal Don Lepley of Clare were notified and they soon had a complete confession out of Gray. Bennett brot him to Grayling Tuesday and the next morning he was bound over to Circuit court for arraignment, and in the meantime is being held in jail without bail. Gray at one time was employed for several years as a prison guard at Jackson prison and also at the state reformatory at Ionia. The officers in no way connect the father, Frank Gray, with having had anything to do with the crime. Grayling people will well remember the parent as a splendid, honest old gentleman, and we are pleased to find that he is in no way implicated.

The best thing about this whole situation is that people don't look skeptical when anyone says that things are better. Instead, the other fellow agrees with you. We have passed beyond the region of hope into the realm of faith, faith in the future, generally shared by everybody. It won't be long, now.

TAKE AWAY PEOPLE'S RIGHTS

The Avalanche isn't quite in accord with the action by the county Board of Supervisors in passing a resolution taking away from the people the right to select the members of the County Board of Road Commissioners. The resolution was passed unanimously by the board in session Wednesday.

At the time that county boards of road commissioners were instituted by the state legislature, it was then optional with the county boards of supervisors to determine whether the members of the board should be selected by that body or by being placed upon the ballot for the voters to manifest their choice. The former method was adopted by the supervisors and that system prevailed for several years.

But many of the people were not satisfied with that way of election, and petitions were presented to the board of supervisors in session on June 25, 1930 asking that members of the county board of road commissioners be selected by popular election, the names of candidates to be placed upon the ballot. Accordingly a resolution approving the request of the petitioners was passed with but one dissenting vote—Albert Lewis of Fred-eric.

Since that time the voters have selected the members of the commission by ballot. And now the present board of supervisors goes back on what was then the wishes of the people. We feel that that wish still stands. The board of supervisors voted to take this authority from the voters and to place it in the power of their own organization.

Just why this lack of confidence in our voters isn't easy to understand. The members seemed to feel justified for their action because of what we believe is a false apprehension, that by the popular vote system the people of Grayling would vote only for candidates from this village and that soon the other townships of the county would be without representation. We cannot believe that that is true. We believe that it is most important that the board be made up of successful business men, and the greater executive ability they may have, the better. If that man comes from Grayling, we would wish his election; and if he comes from a remote part of Crawford county we would just as readily vote for him. The Road Commission handles a lot of money every year and the members have a heavy responsibility to the people, and we should select the very best men we can get to serve upon it. Where he may come from makes no difference. We believe we speak the sentiment and principles of the voters of Grayling in making that statement. If he comes from Grayling, all right; but if a proven better man comes from an outlying township, then vote for him instead.

We know that the people of Grayling are not narrow and selfish and that they are just as anxious to have efficiency on this important board as are the members of the board of supervisors. We trust that the ulterior motives of each and every man on the board of supervisors are honest and would work for the interest and good of the whole people and that no personal aspirations on the part of any member may be back of this move. But the sudden determination to take away a privilege that the voters have had for several years makes us look with apprehension upon it.

The creation of new desires which make for a higher standard of living has been due largely to the power of advertising. New devices and products which add to human satisfaction, comfort and enjoyment would make slow headway without advertising to create a desire for them on the part of the public.

Silver Remonetized by Order of President—Recovery Program Developments—Huey Long's Income Tax Under Investigation.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

Senator Pittman

SILVER has come back. By executive order of President Roosevelt it is remonetized in the United States and will be coined on a large scale.

Formally ratifying the London conference agreement and exercising the powers given him by the inflation amendment to the farm adjustment act, the President directed all the federal mints to accept for coinage all silver mined hereafter in the United States.

His possessions, up to 24,000,000 ounces a year, at a price of 64 1/2 cents an ounce. This is to be in force for four years.

The government split the present legal price of $1.29 an ounce for silver in half in reaching a purchase figure which is 19 cents an ounce over the present open market.

"This proclamation," the President wrote, "in accordance with the act of congress, opens our mints to the coinage of standard silver dollars from silver hereafter produced in the United States, or its possessions, subject to the depositors of such silver surrendering to the government one-half of it as seigniorage and to cover all usual charges and expenses. The dollar coined from half of such newly mined silver will be returned to the depositor. The half surrendered to the government will be retained by the treasury."

Mr. Roosevelt, in ratifying the agreement, pointed out that such action had already been taken by the government of India and that other nations concerned were ready also to act.

Most jubilant of all public men over the President's action was Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, who, as a delegate to the London conference, took a leading part in drawing up the silver agreement. He foresees greatly increased export business as a result of the move because the buying power of the silver-using countries of the Far East, especially China and India, is lifted by about 50 per cent.

Senator Pittman said the effect of the new order would be to take into the treasury about 24,000,000 ounces of silver, to coin one-half of it and deliver it to the owner or depositor of the silver. The other 50 per cent will be retained as bullion in the treasury. It is his expectation that the new order of the White House will give great encouragement to the silver mining regions in the West.

BOTH the federal Surplus Relief corporation and the agricultural adjustment administration have been purchasing commodities for the relief of the idle, and thereby economy and efficiency have suffered. Such purchasing operations have now been consolidated in the Surplus Relief corporation.

The administration also was completing plans for utilizing the Surplus Relief corporation as a device for retiring millions of acres of sub-marginal lands from cultivation. The work is being directed by Rexford G. Tugwell, assistant secretary of agriculture, and it is planned to use funds of the public works administration to purchase the economically unproductive areas.

OFFICIALS of 21 railroad unions met in Chicago and adopted a program of desired legislation that includes a six-hour working day for the million or more railway workers in the country as a means of increasing employment.

A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, who acted as chairman at the meeting, estimated that a six-hour day would cost the railroads of the country $300,000,000 annually. The railroads themselves have estimated the probable cost at twice that amount, he admitted.

AFTER receiving a report from an investigating committee headed by Robert S. Lynd, the consumers' advisory board of the NRA recommended the establishment of a consumers' standards board that would be charged with the development of means of enforcing accurate labeling. Among the articles named as needing quality grading are gasoline, razor blades and children's shoes. Legitimate industry, in the opinion of the board, is encountering destructive competition from unethical producers who are reducing the quality of their products to fill the gap in their profits caused by enforcement of NRA wage and employment standards.

Administrator Hugh S. Johnson was busy trying to clear up the situation concerning the cleaners and dyers. Many in this industry had been cited for prosecution for refusing to comply with prescribed minimum prices. The cash-and-carry cleaners contended these prices were so high that their business would be ruined.

Johnson defended the prices prescribed as "reasonable and fair for the quality of cleaning which the public has the right to expect," but conceded that "there is some demand for lower quality or so-called scamped work."

"Accordingly," he continued, "cleaners who wish to maintain higher prices and higher standards, may join with the President to continue the minimum prices originally approved and such cleaners will be given the right to display the blue eagle with appropriate insignia yet to be decided on, indicating they are maintaining higher quality and higher prices."

CHAIRMAN FLETCHER and his senate banking subcommittee received a report in which were listed several million dollars in Insull securities and German bonds among 7,000 items of collateral held by the Reconstruction Finance corporation on the famous $50,000,000 loan to Charles G. Dawes' Central Republic Bank and Trust company of Chicago.

Members of the committee refused to make the report public, but said it showed the outstanding balance of the loan ($62,000,000) was covered by the collateral under the corporation's estimate of present value. They said the value of all Insull securities held as collateral was not totaled, but one member estimated it at from $8,000,000 to $9,000,000.

In addition, committee members said, the collateral included several million dollars of foreign securities, among them many German federal and state bonds.

The loan was made in 1932 shortly after General Dawes retired as head of the R. F. C. to take the chairmanship of the bank. It was sharply criticized by members of congress and was made an issue of the Presidential campaign.

SENATOR HUEY P. LONG, the Louisiana "kingfish," may be nearing the end of his rope. The latest news about him is that the administration has decided upon his prosecution on the often heard charges of evasion of income taxes. When Mr. Hoover was President an investigation of his receipts, as well as those of his political associates in Louisiana, was started, and dropped probably because the Presidential election was near. Now this inquiry has been resumed, the agents of the internal revenue department seeking to find out whether Long reported in his income tax schedules all the sums he received both as governor of Louisiana and as United States senator. In Washington it is held virtually certain that this action has the approval of President Roosevelt.

Senator Long

Huey himself professes not to be worried. "That matter was scheduled to come up now," he said to an interviewer. "It has been up 750 times before, and always comes just before congress meets. I am not interested."

Long's power in his home state is fast waning. In the first place, he has been unable to obtain any recognition in the matter of federal patronage. And the senate committee's investigation of the election of Long's colleague, Senator Overton, uncovered a most savory mess, the odor of which offends Louisiana folk. Only a few days ago Mayor T. S. Walmesley of New Orleans announced that he had definitely broken with the "kingfish," and others of his prominent adherents have followed suit.

REALTY and personal property taxes, for state purposes, have been abolished by the state government of Illinois. The step was taken after state officials decided a 2 per cent tax on retail sales, with perhaps some help from liquor taxation, would be adequate to replace the $85,000,000 levied annually in recent years on general property.

This action is notable as the first complete substitution of a sales tax for property taxes any state has made. It will result in a saving ranging from 7 to 10 per cent to property owners. Gov. Henry Horner, State Treasurer J. C. Martin and State Auditor Edward J. Barrett comprise the board that abolished the tax.

THE Pan-American conference in Montevideo came to a close, and Secretary of State Cordell Hull, as he departed for home by way of France, said: "My most enduring remembrance of the conference will be the beautiful patriotism, the patience, and the state-ship of the Bolivian and Paraguayan delegates in the midst of delicate and anxious problems."

"The tasks were unspeakably difficult, but the good will toward peace which both have shown has been superimposed upon differences, and they offered the world an example of how powerfully a will for peace can conquer apparently insuperable obstacles."

MAJ. Gen. Edward L. King, U. S. A., commander of the Fourth corps area, died suddenly in Atlanta, Ga. He was a graduate of West Point and served in France during the World war, earning many decorations. He also fought in Cuba in the war with Spain.

PRESIDENT DE VALERA's government in the Irish Free State sustained a severe reverse when Justice Byrne of the Dublin High court released on a writ of habeas corpus Gen. Owen O'Duffy and Capt. John Sullivan, leaders of the Blue Shirt movement. They had been arrested at Westport under the public safety act.

Justice Byrne, in announcing his decision, said: "I can only come to the conclusion that O'Duffy was arrested because he was speaking to some persons while wearing a blue shirt. That is the only reasonable inference to be drawn from the facts. I do not accept the police superintendent's story of the arrest on suspicion as the true explanation of the case."

"So far as Sullivan is concerned there is no evidence why he was arrested and his detention is illegal. So far as O'Duffy is concerned, I am also satisfied his detention is unlawful."

"We are teaching the government to respect the law," said General O'Duffy, as he left the prison. "The Blue Shirt movement is perfectly lawful and constitutional and will go on to victory. I don't anticipate there will be any more interference with Blue Shirts after the high court vindication. If there is, we are prepared to meet it. We will carry on until the objects which we established are achieved and until eventually, as I hope and believe, the Irish people entrust us with the government of this country."

CHINESE National air forces bombed Foochow, Fukien province, where Communists were concentrated, and in the process damaged the church and other property of the American board mission. Fifty-eight Chinese were killed but no Americans or other foreigners were injured. Nationalist gunboats then took possession of the Foochow forts.

PECULIARLY atrocious was the murder of Archbishop Leon Tournai, head of the Armenian church in America, as he was attending services in a New York church. He was stabbed to death presumably by members of a group opposed to the Soviet regime in Armenia. The assassins escaped from the church, but a number of suspects have been arrested.

JESSE H. JONES, chairman of the Reconstruction corporation, believes the railroads will need further financial assistance from the government during 1934. He said that the government either through the corporation or some other agency would have to help finance the security issues that became due during the year. Several railroads already have discussed the matter with the corporation, among them the New York Central, which has a maturity of $48,000,000 due May 1.

Wall Street statisticians have estimated that the larger maturities total about $372,000,000, but smaller maturities probably will add another $100,000,000, and buying of rails and rolling stock might put the railroads' expenditures for the year far higher. Jones mentioned a figure of $2,300,000,000.

Most of the roads are asking the corporation to advance half of the maturities, planning to pay a portion of the bond issues in cash and the remainder with new bonds.

FRANCE's worst railroad disaster made Christmas a time of mourning instead of joy there. Two hundred and one men, women and children perished when the Paris-Strasbourg flyer crashed into the Nancy express at full speed at Pomponne, about 15 miles from Paris. The accident happened during a dense fog. In the number of dead this disaster was second only to one in Greta Green, Scotland, in 1915, in which 227 persons were killed.

LEST WE FORGET

In these days of business recovery when many of us who have known the pinch of poverty are again able to bring home the welcome pay envelope, let us not forget the man who befriended us when we most needed friendship—the merchant who extended us credit when he knew we just didn't have the money to pay. It is easy to avoid the man to whom we owe money, but it is not right to do so. If we have any money to spend, any goods to buy, he is the man to whom we should go.

Our local merchant, especially, undoubtedly extended credit as a friendly act. He will be reasonable in arranging payment. Let us show our gratitude, walk in and shake hands, and give him the benefit of our present business.—Record, Brunswick, Me.

U. S. CLEARS UP IDENTITY OF HANGED "FLINT" YOUTH

Canon City, Colo., Dec. 14 (AP)—Officials at the Colorado penitentiary said today that the youth hanged here as Walter Jones, formerly of Flint, Mich., had been identified through U. S. Fingerprint Bureau experts as John R. Morgan, once an inmate of the Michigan State Reformatory at Ionia.

Jones declined to talk about his relatives, but prison guards reported the initials J. R. M. tattooed on his arm. A check was made with the Government bureau and experts there reported Jones' true name was Morgan.

Prison officials said Flint authorities "knew the youth only as a tramp, arrested for carrying a revolver."—Detroit News.

The mystery surrounding the identity of the above Walter Jones seems to have baffled the efforts of officials ever since the youth was first apprehended nearly a year ago. At that time his address was given as Flint and Grayling, Mich., and the newspaper picture of him was believed to have been that of Edward Barnes, a former Grayling boy. Now it develops that his name was Morgan and that Barnes is in jail at Gaylord.

It certainly is a relief to Grayling people to find that the executed youth was not really a Grayling boy. Sheriff Bennett says that Barnes is really in jail in Gaylord. He is charged with having broken into summer cottages near Gaylord.

OLD RESIDENT PASSED AWAY

John Dixon passed away at his home on the South side on New Years Eve at about 8:30 o'clock. He had taken suddenly sick on the 24th of December and passed away the following Sunday; he had been in poor health for a number of years.

Mr. Dixon was 76 years old and was born in Henry county, Ohio, and raised in Fulton county, Ohio. He came to Michigan when he was 22 years of age and married Miss Sarah Clifford of Gratiot county. They moved to Grayling the following year. He had made several trips to the southern part of the state and Ohio, and one trip to Alabama and back, but for the past 22 years he has made his home in Grayling.

He leaves to mourn, his widow, Mrs. Sarah Dixon and two sons Arthur and Clarence Dixon and families, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rood niece and nephew and family, all of Grayling. Also he is survived by five half brothers and three half sisters, Herman Porter of St. Helens, H. O. Porter of Morenci, and the others reside in the state of Ohio. A brother-in-law Benjamin Clifford of Gratiot county also survives.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon with services at the Michelson Memorial church, officiated at by Rev. H. J. Salmon, and the choir rendered several hymns. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

The children were entertained with games during the afternoon then about four o'clock were taken into the living room which had a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. Then a jingle of bells announced the arrival of Santa with a loaded pack on his back. The children's names were called and each received a bag of candy and a toy. There were about sixty youngsters present. After this a nice lunch was also enjoyed by the youngsters. The grown-ups came next each receiving a gift and everyone enjoyed a lovely pot luck lunch.

The next meeting will be Jan. 4th with Mrs. Kenneth Clise, hostess.

RUSSIA AND OTHER DEBTORS

Our form of government is our business. Russia's form of government is her business. We spent several hundred millions to promote a Russian revolution through a Mr. Kerenski, who squandered the money and miserably failed to deliver the oil and gold mining franchises to ex-ploters. We never hesitated to recognize the czars with their Krouts and Siberia and serfdom. Under the czar 90 per cent could not read or write. The new Russia is making the world's greatest effort to give every Russian child a free public school education and promises to beat the United States at the game. We need not fear that Russia will fail to pay her bills—she has promptly met every obligation and despite all handicaps never offered a plea of "inability to pay" as a means of dodging. In fact, Russia has offered to pay the questionable United States claims whenever an international commission shall determine the justice of them. How about our "gallant allies" to whom we have already donated nearly 10,000 millions of dollars?—Star-Clipper, Traer, Iowa.

Washington News Letter

(By Congressman Roy O. Woodruff, Tenth Michigan District)

For the first time in the history of the United States, Congress convenes in January, this having been brought about by adoption of the 20th amendment to the Constitution last Spring. With majorities of 293 in the House and 25 in the Senate, the Democrats are in a position to rush through any legislation agreed upon as necessary by the White House.

Speaker Rainey lauds the accomplishments of the Recovery Program, asserting that nothing remains for Congress to do but to pass the general supply bill, a liquor and revenue-revision measure and adjourn. He expresses the opinion that the Recovery Program is rapidly restoring the country to a state which will be the envy of the rest of the world. Neither he nor any of the other Administration leaders expresses concern about the six-billion-dollar budget for which Congress will be asked to provide the wherewithal. The enthusiasm of Speaker Rainey is matched, if not exceeded, by that of Professor Tugwell, Postmaster General Farley and other Administration leaders who are in charge of various activities established in the past few months. Professor Tugwell explains that the large expenditures being made in the name of recovery are but a small price to pay and confidently asserts that the billions represented can be paid back in one year of the prosperity which he says will surely and speedily follow.

Whether or not such optimism as this is justified, no one is in a position at this time to state definitely. We do know, however, that the time has passed when this or any other nation can support such waste as was represented in uncontrolled and unregulated exploitation of every avenue of profit. The victims of this waste, principally the farmers and unemployed millions became so numerous and their plight so aggravated that a drastic change of some kind was demanded.

Each nation has been faced with the necessity of radical Governmental changes in the past few years. That there is little uniformity in method is not strange because each nation has its own peculiar problems. However, in no case has any one of them except the United States under the present administration proceeded on the theory that a social order productive of self-sustaining security for all its citizens could be realized by raising commodity prices artificially, by extending the credit of the government to individuals and businesses, and by voluntarily surrendering public control over business and industrial practices through suspension of anti-trust laws.

President Roosevelt and his administrators proclaim that this method is succeeding, and have cited it as the model for the rest of the world to follow. They cite statistics of recovery to prove their point. The New Year of 1934 upon which we are entering will afford clearer judgments upon the soundness of these theories. It will demonstrate whether a program of further instability of the currency can lead to governmental control of price in a way to advance the welfare of all classes of our citizens, as has been announced will be the case.

May I express the hope that the coming year—may mark the beginning of an era that will give to every American citizen an increased measure of comfort, of happiness, of prosperity; that it will herald the coming of a day when all these things will be continuous and when periods of depression with their attendant sufferings will have been ended. With this wish also goes the desire that the people of other countries can likewise enjoy the blessings of better times and that the nations of the world can, through a better understanding of the problems of each other, live in peace with all their neighbors.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the people of Grayling and our neighbors and friends for their kindness and help in our recent sorrow and loss.

Mrs. John Dixon and Family.

Hold opinions of your own and don't be afraid to express them. The public may criticize but it always will tolerate expressions of honest convictions. In this day and age, so many "hate to say anything" on public questions for fear of losing business or being criticised. Those who dare to express an opinion and who back it up with sound judgment are the ones who are responsible for the community's development.—Herald, St. Peter, Minn.

DEPT. OF STATE

STATE NEWS BULLETIN

Through reduction of personnel and adjustment of salaries, the Department of State payrolls were reduced January 1 at the rate of $50,640 a year.

The salary adjustment was not a "blanket cut" but consisted of reductions in the salaries of division heads and the higher-paid employees while no changes were made in the salaries of those in the lower-wage brackets. Secretary of State Frank D. Fitzgerald voluntarily reduced his own salary in conformity with the payroll adjustment.

Crime is decreasing in Michigan, according to compilation by the Department of State of the annual sheriff's reports for the year ending June 30, 1933.

During the 12 months ending on that date, 45,561 persons were arrested and confined in jails, according to the compilation, while during the year ending June 30, 1932, a total of 52,157 persons were arrested.

The summary also shows that the cost of maintaining Michigan's 83 sheriff's departments was $1,502,043; or $369,005 less than for the previous year. A reduction also was made in costs of keeping the prisoners. It cost $16.18 to keep each prisoner a week in 1932 while the cost for the 12 months ending June 30, 1933 was $13.59.

During the year 1,667 were sentenced to state prisons, 788 to the Michigan Reformatory, 2,988 to the Detroit House of Correction, 19 to the Boys Vocational Schools and 9 to the Girls Training School.

An attempt is being made by means of a mandamus suit, to compel the Department of State to disclose confidential information it receives in the collection of the gasoline tax.

In Michigan there are slightly more than 900 wholesale gasoline distributors, all of whom pay gasoline taxes monthly and who file reports on the total number of gallons of gasoline sold. The large majority of these distributors are small independent companies, not connected with the large refining corporations.

The information which comes to the department concerning the volume of business of each company, has not been made a part of the public records as the policy of Secretary of State Frank D. Fitzgerald is that the department received its information in a confidential manner and should not violate this confidence.

Recently one of the large gasoline distributing companies asked for information regarding the amount of gasoline sold by each of the small independent distributors. When this request was denied, a mandamus suit was started against the department to compel it to make public this information.

Michigan's school system will receive about $600,000 a year from chain store tax revenues as a result of the decision of Wayne Circuit Judge Robert M. Toms. Judge Toms last week held that the 1933 chain store tax was constitutional.

Before the new tax law became effective, 26 of the larger chain store organizations started a suit to have the law declared unconstitutional, and they asked for a permanent injunction preventing the state from collecting the tax. Judge Toms' decision means that these companies will pay approximately $600,000 a year to the state unless the case is appealed and a restraining order secured from the Supreme Court. Under the law the revenue is apportioned among the school districts in proportion to the number of teachers employed in the primary schools.

HUMAN TORPEDO

Japan is now asking for volunteers for certain death. Recruiting will start in the new year for men prepared to act as "human torpedoes" in naval engagements.

This death brigade was made, when it became known that Japanese Naval engineers had perfected a new type of torpedo, fitted with a steering gear and having room for a steersman. The volunteer would be in the torpedo when it was launched from a Japanese ship and could easily guide it to its mark.

Tax Payers

PRACTICAL, YES INDEED

"Has your son's education been along practical lines?"
"I should say so. Three ball teams are after him to sign for this season."

THE DIAGNOSIS

"Do you see that strong, healthy-looking man over there?"
"I was just admiring his physique."
"The doctors gave him up two years ago."
"You surprise me."
"Yes, they found that they couldn't get anything out of him."

THE IDEA

"Women haven't any sense of the proprieties."
"How now?"
"You know that bulldog I got my wife?"
"Yes."
"She wants to name it Fifi."

EXCUSE ENOUGH

Marian—Oh, I'm sorry I can't marry you. I had no idea you thought of me that way.
Frank—Well, what do you suppose I have been letting your father beat me at golf all the time for?

HAVE THE MONEY

Beatrice—Do you think that it is unmanly for a girl to propose to a man during leap year?
Cortland—Certainly not. If she has money for two.

THE FUTURE

"The young man who called on me last night says there is a fool in every family."
"Was he trying to advance that as a reason why we should take him into ours?"

"Iron Mike"

"Iron Mike" Mikulak, the University of Oregon's 200-pound fullback, is a senior and has been the west coast's greatest defensive player for two years. This year he developed into an excellent ball carrier. If he doesn't get a place on the All-American team Oregon will be much disappointed. Mike's home town is Minneapolis, Minn.

If the printing of the Congressional Record were abolished and the newspapers quit sending reporters to the capitol, how long would it be before Congress would quit talking?
